

Alice "Vonnie" Smith

September 25, 1960 - December 28, 2024

Alice Yvonne "Vonnie" Smith passed into the arms of our Heavenly Father at her home in Wenatchee, WA, on December 28, 2024, with her long-time partner, Bill Smith, at her side. She was born September 25, 1960, in Kennewick, WA into a religious, musical family, to Clarence W. Schopp and Alice (Hansen) Schopp, while Clarence was playing organ in church on that Sunday. She joins her siblings M. Jean, Shirley and Butch. Following her father's music career, she lived later in Cheney and Davenport, WA, where she graduated from Davenport High School in 1978. She later went to Whitworth University in Spokane, WA, before moving to the Wenatchee area to be closer to family. She worked in a variety of jobs at Jones and Jones-Betts Funeral Home, and Walmart, owned and operated a café, and then her long-time career at Star Rentals. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, both sets of grandparents, her uncles Richard and Norman, and aunts Lois and Clara, and brothers-in-law, Gordon and Dick. She is survived by her partner Bill Smith, sisters Jean Davidson, of Wenatchee, Shirley (Fred) Stanfield, of East Wenatchee, and Butch Schopp of Spokane, niece Ashley and nephew Aaron, aunt Beulah Whitman and several cousins and her very large Star Rental Family. A graveside service was held at Wenatchee Cemetery on January 9, 2025, followed by a memorial at Cornerstone Christian Church in Wenatchee.
