

Alma Adriana Ludewig

September 8, 1957 - March 17, 2024

Alma means soul in Spanish, a truly befitting name for our mother who had an incredibly beautiful soul full of love & light.

No short of an adventure this brave soul left home at an early age with her husband and children to a whole new world, leaving her much loved everything & everyone else in her birthplace for a chance at a better future for her new family. Alma always tried putting the needs of her children above her own. In this adventure, Alma our mother had a passion to teach and help other mothers & children or other others. With this passion, she left a legacy of love wherever whomever came in contact with her aura of light & kindness. Truly a great example & mentor she always leads with a shoulder to lean on or an ear to make animal sounds & nonsense to.

Alma, you have touched many of hearts with your bravery & warm nature.

You taught us how to never lose our youth with your goofy personality.

You taught us to do everything with a full heart.

You taught us quien se enoja pierde.

You taught us to always give our best.

You taught us how to be humble

You taught us creativity can be a superpower and a lifestyle.

You taught us the balance to love and love equally.

You always taught us how to make and conquer an adventure.

You showed us that miracles can happen.

And in this adventure that you've blessed us with your company on, you my dearest of mothers is the biggest miracle I have ever had the opportunity to experience. You're the single strongest mind, body, and soul that I have had the privilege to come across. Your eternal warmth in all our hearts will keep us heated on the coldest of nights. Although distraught upon your departure we understand how to be in peace, grateful for you now have the peace our feeble flesh and bones could only imagine to comprehend. We, your three chilis hijos along with all your loved ones are honored to be a part of your journey and thank you with immense gratitude to have shared your valuable time with us.

You are a Godsend, a cure all, you represent comfort and the best of times in my mortal clock extending your presence eternally. We welcome your heavenly watch, clues or hauntings and hope we can make you a proud Mother carrying your legacy continuing the adventure we first embarked on together.

From soul to soul and all the other souls you've blessed with your heavenly soul, Alma, we will all miss you dearly. Even when you weren't, you were always right.

Blessings & goodnight.

“ I am a little late, but as I was scrolling through the tributes, I found this one for Miss Alma. It was an absolute honor to help her navigate through her journey at Regency. She was one of my most favorite patients/ residents. She had the will power, strength, and courage most people wouldn't have in her situation. She was a fighter. She was a great mom, always wondering what she should do because she had her children's needs/wants in the back of her mind. She was an absolute beautiful soul, and I cherish the time I was able to spend with her. May God bless all of you as you continue to heal.
