

Alma Viola Radach

October 30, 1927 - May 6, 2020

Alma (Goehner) Radach was born October 30, 1927 in Kulm, North Dakota to John F and Tillie Goehner. At the age of 8, she came west to Washington state with her parents, settling in the Wenatchee Valley, where she live all her life. She attended most of her school years at Dryden School, graduating from there in 1946. On February 14, 1948, she married Harvey Radach at Dryden, where they lived and operated a fruit orchard until 1989, when they retired and moved to Wenatchee. She was a lifelong member of the Dryden Community Church, serving in various ways.

Memorials may be may be made to the Dryden Community Church or a memorial of your choice.

The two above paragraphs were written many years ago by Alma herself, a simple woman with a simple obituary.

Alma passed away on Wednesday, May 6, 2020. She was preceded in death by her husband, parents, and three brothers (Raymond, Lawrence, and Kenneth). She is survived by one sister: Marie Goehner of Dryden. Also surviving are two children: Michael (Kamilla) Radach of Oak Harbor, and Patricia (Greg) Winegar of Wenatchee; three grandchildren: Crystal Radach, Matthew (Carolyn) Radach, and Mark (Masynn) Radach; and two great-grandchildren: Harvey and Miles.

The family wishes to thank Caring Cottage Adult Family Home and the hospice facilitators for their excellent care.

A private burial was held and public memorial service will be held at a future date.

“ Albin and I are so sorry for your loss. We enjoyed getting to know Alma when she would bring her car to Dryden for Albin to repair. She is one of the many we have missed since we closed the shop.
