“ Dear Bill: just wanted to let you know how much I will miss dear Alyce as my best friend and sister in Christ. But we have this Hope that we will see her again as we know she is sleeping in Jesus now. Some day very soon Jesus will come again and call forth His sleeping children and if we are still alive we will be caught up with Alyce to meet Jesus our Saviour in the air. What a wonderful day that will be. Until then we can remember the promises Jesus has given to us in the Bible we are never alone He is always with us. And I promised Alyce I would always be there for you so I'm only a phone call away. Your friend to, Chris
