“ We have many people that come into our lives; family, neighbors and friends, but no one knows us quite as well or shares our deepest thoughts like a life-long friend. I have now lost one of my dearest life-long friends.

I was proud to call Art my friend. He was one of the kindest people I have ever had the privilege to know. He had intelligence, wit, a great listening ear, and a caring heart that made him a great friend.

However, I do think that I would still have most of my hair, if Art hadn't given me all those neck holds with head rubs that pulled my hair out!!! But even with that, I will always be thankful that I had the opportunity to know him. I will cherish his memory, and will never forget all the wonderful times we spent on the motorcycles, cruise ships, traveling here and there, and the many camping trips.

To Art's entire family; please know how much I share your pain and sorrow at this sad and difficult time. I hope your memories will bring you peace and comfort. Jerry VanBelle “ Art was a friend, a very special person and a joy to know. I don't think Art ever knew a stranger; he would strike up conversations with anyone close by, and have a new friend in just a few minutes.

I remember Art and Shirley as my "camping mentors". They taught me the dos and don'ts for several years. (Okay - so I am a slow learner) Every trip was an adventure to be sure and so much fun. I wish we could have had more.

*To Shirley and family, I hope your memories bring you comfort.

“ I was broken hearted to learn that Art had passed. I met Art and Shirley quite a few years ago and we all shared so many good times, handball tournaments, sausage and biscuits breakfasts and a lot of time just sharing what was going on in our lives. I never left an occasion shared with our sweet friends without a smile on my face that seemed to last for a long time. Jim enjoyed golfing, kicking tires and handballing with Art. They always seemed to have lots of jokes and life stories to share and enjoy. Jim and I were so pleased when Art and Shirley found each other and created such a beautiful relationship that has lasted so many years. They were so good for each other.

I am sure that Jim and Art are playing catch up and telling each other silly stories. God bless us all!!
