

Barbara "Barb" Jean Staggs

September 16, 1958 - November 29, 2021

It is with great sadness that the family of Barbara Jean Shoup-Staggs (Barb) announce her sudden passing on November 29, 2021 at the age of 63.

Barb will be lovingly remembered by her father, Harry Shoup; son, Christopher Staggs and her two granddaughters, Zoe and Vivienne. Her Siblings Rick Adams, Rosie Robinson and Kimberly Adams. Her niece, Jennifer Adams; nephews; Larry Creiglow, Jacob Creiglow & Tyler Jordan and great nieces and nephews will feel her absence greatly. She made special effort to have a relationship with all of them. She wanted them to always know she loved them and thought of them all the time. Everyone could count on an advent calendar at Christmas, even if they're in their 30's and spread to different states, they got theirs and since she wasn't exactly a timely person, were able to eat a lot of chocolate all at once!

Barb was preceded in death by her stepfather George Adams, son, Michael Shoup; and mother, Jean Adams-Hargreaves.

Barb was best known for her adorable quirky nature, adventurous attitude and joyful spirit. She loved gathering with the 'church ladies' and being a part of their shenanigans, any shenanigans, actually. Barb loved her extended family. Being a part of gatherings, was her favorite thing. That is, unless it was a gathering around a campfire roasting marshmallows. A marshmallow died a slow, painful burning death in her keep. This was due to her inability to blow them out without laughing so hard they burned to a crisp!

Her laugh was infectious and her looks known to all. You didn't have to wonder what Barb was thinking, she'd let you know.

We would love for you to join us in celebrating her life and the stories you have of her. Services will be held on Saturday, December 11, 2021 at 12pm at Spirit Life Center Church, 210 Benton Street-Leavenworth, Washington.
