Barbara J. Chipman, formerly Dodson, passed away on April 22, 2024, at the age of 84, leaving behind a legacy of love, strength, and dedication. Born on August 8, 1939, in Leavenworth, Washington, Barbara was a pillar of her community and a cherished member of her family.

Barbara is survived by her cherished sons Jeffrey Wynn Chipman, Rolan Lance Chipman, and Scott Alexander Chipman. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother, whose love and guidance will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

A graduate of Wenatchee High School, Barbara embarked on a journey filled with passion and purpose. Together with her husband, they owned and operated Mission Creek Glass and Paint in Cashmere, Washington, where she poured her heart into serving her community.

Barbara was not only a successful businesswoman but also a dedicated family historian, spending countless hours tracing her family's roots and preserving their legacy for future generations. She was a member of the American Legion in Cashmere for nearly three decades, embodying the spirit of service and camaraderie.

In her later years, Barbara found fulfillment in caring for seniors in her
