“ Barbara was a friend of about 62 years. We knew her in high school and have maintained a relationship with her and Dennis all of these years, while raising our kids and having grandkids.

Barbara was a wonderful person and a wonderful friend. She was a very happy person who loved to laugh and made us laugh so so many times. Most times when we would get together with Barbara and Dennis over the years we would end up laughing so hard that we had tears running down our faces. Another thing that we always noticed about Barbara was her beautiful smile. She just had the nicest smile.

We will miss Barbara tremendously. And we will always smile when we think of her. Rest in the peace of Jesus and we will be laughing together again. We love you Barb!

“ Within minutes of first meeting Barb I knew what an incredibly warm and giving heart she had. She was a very special woman who adored her family and friends and loved life. Her graciousness and humor was contagious. Heaven gained an angel when she crossed that threshold. Dennis, love and hugs to you and your family.

“ Barb was the 'adult' when Red and I got out of line. At Sealth they both looked like they just came off a taping of American Bandstand. Not too many people make a impression that lasts 50 plus years. She did on me. Mike Larson, Chelan, Wa.
