

Betty Lynn Griffith

February 24, 1929 - August 31, 2017

Betty Lynn Griffith was born on February 24, 1929 to parents Clarence and Bess Hummel in Wenatchee, Washington. Betty attended and Wenatchee High School and graduated in 1947. She attended WSU where she met the love of her life, Tom Griffith. Betty graduated in 1951 with a Home Economics degree. In 1951, Tom and Betty married and made their first home in Chelan and she worked as a teacher in Chelan. In 1961, Tom, Betty and their children: Tom, Shelley and John, moved to Paton Street in Cashmere, which was there home until 2015.

Betty and Tom loved to ski at Mission Ridge during the winters and enjoyed the summers, on Lake Chelan. Betty was an avid seamstress, loved to cook, play tennis and was an active member of the bridge club. She also volunteered at the Cashmere Museum and was an active leader for Rainbow and Campfire Girls. She enjoyed fundraising for various non-profits including Seattle Children's Hospital. Tom and Betty loved to travel the world with their friends. Betty spent her life knowing Jesus and was a member of the Cashmere United Methodist Church.

Betty is survived by her children: Thomas III (Marilyn), Michelle "Shelly" (Alan) Kaas, John (Karen); three grandchildren, Ryan Kaas, Megan (Mario) Borgna, Leah Griffith and two great grandchildren, Marshal and Marcus Borgna.
