“ Betty loved going out for pie, but she found it difficult to decide which one.so there was one to eat and one to take for later.

“ I loved how she would light up and come running to me when I would walk through the door to visit. She would make sure to tell all her friends how lucky she was to have family. I enjoyed our outings for haircuts, lunches and dinners. I would play the oldies from the 60's on the radio when we were driving around town, we would both sing out loud! Missing her everyday.

“ Watching Aunt Betty prepare her famous cinnamon rolls. They were so delicious. She also made me some doll clothes for my Barbie's that I still have. Will miss you dearly.
