

Blanche Carver

June 6, 1934 - December 28, 2009

Blanche (Riste) Carver, 75, a longtime Wenatchee and East Wenatchee resident, passed away at her home surrounded by her family, following a short and unexpected illness, on December 28, 2009.

She was born on June 6, 1934 at Oroville, Washington to the late Joseph and Anne (Anderson) Riste. She grew up in Wenatchee and Seattle, graduating from Wenatchee High School in 1953. Shortly after, she met and married the love of her life, Russell Carver.

Blanche was a long term resident of Wenatchee and Ellensburg, where she worked as an in home hospice caregiver. She was a passionate gardener who spent hours out in her yard and was just as passionate about her pets. She often kept everyone on their toes with her surprising humor and opinions on modern trends.

Blanche went home to be with her Lord and her Russell, a place she looked forward to going with unshakeable faith. She left behind, two daughters and one son-in-law, Julanne & James Burts, East Wenatchee and Beth Gramkow, Wenatchee; one brother, Tad Riste, Roslyn, WA; grandchildren, Anne & Wes Worden of LaConner, WA; Amber & Larry Higgins of Wenatchee, Alicia & Reece Caouette of Wenatchee and Kira Burts of Redmond; her great grandchildren, Sage, Faith, Tarin and Cyan. She was preceded in death by her husband, Russell, her parents and two infant brothers.
