“ britney. it's been almost 7 years now. it's gotten easier but you're still in my thoughts every day. i wish i could just have a day with you and tell you how much i've grown. tell you where i am in life and what i've experienced. if i could just sit down and talk to you id have so many questions. i would want to hear everything. the only thing i regret is not getting to know you better. i got a tattoo in your memory, lavender, your favorite. you were so brilliant and brave. you were beautiful and courageous and if i could say just one thing to you, it would be that i love you and i forgive you. i forgive you. the last thing i said to you will be burned into my brain forever. no matter what happens i will always love you. it was true then and it's still true now. i love you with all of my mind my soul and my heart. can't wait till i can hold you in my arms again.
