Carla J (Darlington) Radach

Mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother passed away quietly surrounded by family at her home in Cashmere on April 8, 2022. Carla was born September 8, 1938, in Leavenworth WA to Richard S Darlington and Florence (Mounter) Darlington.

She received her education in the Leavenworth school. Carla met the love of her life Henry (Hank) Radach in Leavenworth. They lived in Peshastin for the first year of marriage and then moved back to Leavenworth where they lived for 50 years. The last 16 years they lived in Cashmere.

Carla worked in the meat department at Safeway for several years then went into retail where she worked at the Schraml Gallery for many years. She made a change in her career once her children were raised, to bartending. The Ski and Old Post Office Tavern is where she made lots of wonderful lifelong friends. She also enjoyed gardening, canning, and going to the casino. In fact, she made a trip to the casino just 3 weeks prior to passing and walked out with an additional $500

Carla is survived by her children, Tom (Kathy), Ron (Allison), and Cindy (Mark) Hartman. She is also survived by her brothers Gary (Carla Rae) and Randy Darlington, 6 grandsons, 3 great-grandsons, and 3 great-granddaughters. She is preceded in death by her husband Hank, her mother Florence, father Richard, and sister Mary Anne.

We would like to especially thank her caregiver Tina for the last 6 years, and additional caregivers Judy, Deborah, and Keileigh.

There will be a celebration of life for Carla on June 18th, at 3 pm at the home of Mark and Cindy Hartman in Cashmere.

Please visit Carla's online tribute page at www.heritagememorialchapel.com. To share a memory with the family. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel East Wenatchee and Cashmere.
