

Carole Ann Hovey

March 29, 1939 - September 12, 2023

Carole Ann Hovey, age 84, passed away at Central Washington Hospital on Tuesday, September 12th due to a sudden illness.

Born on March 29, 1939 to Roy and Alma Dugwyler, she was the second of five children. Spending the bulk of her life in the Wenatchee Valley, she graduated from Cashmere High School in 1957. She spent many years working as the Head Cook for the Cashmere School District, retiring in 2001 when she began her retirement years in Sun City, Arizona.

Carole was very active in life. She loved to golf, a pastime in which she made several lasting friendships- she was an active member of the Happy Hookers Ladies Golf group. She enjoyed hosting events such as weekly Wine & Dine, Game Nights, and Holiday get-togethers. Carole had a love of cooking and baking, extending that passion to her granddaughter and great-grandchildren. Carole loved to travel, coordinating many travel adventures with her friends, including several international cruises and trips to Costa Rica. She also enjoyed frequent trips to the Oregon Coast, especially to the Pelican Shores Inn at Lincoln City, OR.

Carole is survived by her daughter Sheri (Jack) Norris, granddaughter Taylor (Javan) Jordan, and three great-grandchildren Teviana, Atlas and Amaya. She is also survived by her sister Shirley Hilton, and three brothers Gary, Dave, and Steve Dugwyler, along with numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A celebration of life was held for her immediate family in Cashmere WA, with an additional celebration of life to take place in Arizona at a later date.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the Confluence Health Comfort Care Staff.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions or donations can be made to the Humane Society or the Confluence Health & Wenatchee Valley Medical Group Community Partnership Fund.

Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee & Cashmere.

“ My sis was as good as one can be. I wish we were closer on distance but we made up when we were together.i think of her every day and sure enough, as many many others....she's the first to see mom and dad again and what a time that would be. I miss you sis. I wish well for all your beautiful family and sorry I'm not there...love you all.
