Carolyn Stuart

Natalie Carolyn Stuart, 89, of Wenatchee, WA, passed away peacefully on February 14, 2025. Carolyn was born in Rule, Arkansas, to Henry and Vela Griffith on May 29, 1935. She graduated high school from the School of the Ozarks in Branson, Missouri in 1952 and continued her education at the University of Arkansas. Upon graduation in 1956 she taught high school home economics and science courses.

Carolyn met her husband, Edwin Stuart, at the university. After only one date Edwin decided he wanted 'to marry that girl.' They were married only 9 months later. After 55 years of marriage he affirmed that he could have done no better. Carolyn was preceded in death by her husband on January 5, 2011. She was the last surviving child of six.

Carolyn is survived by her two sons, George Stuart and his wife Wendy and Joseph Stuart and his wife LaShelle; and daughter, Mary Stuart. She is also survived by her grandchildren, Amy Ramos, Jeff Stuart, Elizabeth Morris, Jonathan Nicholas Nitkowski, Stephen Nitkowski, Jake Stuart, and Cole Stuart. Carolyn enjoyed being a great-grandma of four children.

Carolyn was an avid gardener and baker. Something was always in bloom in her flower garden while her vegetable garden was typically overrun by tomatoes. Carolyn also enjoyed turning the fruit harvest into pies and jams to feed her always hungry family. She kept the cookie jar full and never missed baking a birthday cake. She faithfully served God through her many church ministries and loved her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren well. She was a quiet woman who loved loudly.

The family wishes to express their gratitude to Dr. Toby Long and all the staff at Avamere Senior Community. A graveside service will be held at a later date.
