

Catherine Ann Andruss

December 16, 1952 - April 28, 2022

Cathy Ann Andruss, 69, of Wenatchee, formerly of Monitor, Washington, died peacefully April 28, 2022, at her home after many years of battling cancer.

She was born in Wenatchee on December 16, 1952, to Harry and Margaret Bowden. She grew up in Wenatchee and attended school there. Following High School, Cathy married Delbert Andruss on August 28, 1970, in Wenatchee where they started their family. They later moved to Monitor where they raised their sons, Brian, and Brad. Cathy worked at Elro's Pizza Parlor in Cashmere for many years and later became the owner. Years later she became a caregiver at Cashmere Epledalen.

Cathy loved her family and always looked forward to family camping vacations with her children, their families and longtime family friends Lloyd & Chris Sims, Bob & Lori Johanson, and Tim & Lori Peterson. She also loved her two daughters-in-law crazy boat shenanigans throughout the years. Not to mention the rotating of houses, playing cards with the Johanson and Sims families every weekend. She also loved spending time at Mill Bay with close friends and family, testing her luck.

She is survived by her mother Margaret Mounts, two sons and daughters-in-law. Brian & Debby and Brad & Toni Andruss all of Cashmere. Four grandchildren Jacob (Kylie) Andruss, Dalton Andruss, Mason Andruss and Samantha Andruss. Two-great granddaughters Charlee and Piper Andruss. Two sisters, Patsy Meyer, and Billy Jo Johnson. As well as numerous nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

A memorial service will be held May 5, 2022, at 11 a.m. at Evergreen Cemetery in East Wenatchee, WA.

Arrangements are in care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee and Cashmere
