

Cecelia Rose Baker

July 15, 1997 - July 5, 2020

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Cece was a source of hope and joy for so many, she is in our thoughts always. May her memory be a source of light and peace for her family.

Kathryn Stoner - October 28, 2020 at 08:58 PM

WE

“ Auntie Wendy and Cece...crabbing, then fixing grub at grandpas. She loved an adventure. Beautiful day at the beach while grandpa took the one man boat out to get the crab pots. Bonfire, fun family, and good food! xo

Wendy - July 09, 2020 at 10:36 PM

WE

“ Cecelia was born the day before her cousin, my son. My sister and I shared lots of baby days together. Cece was a sweet easy going baby girl. This gave us all an excuse to finally buy pink. What a precious joy she was. She grew up among the boys in the family, and she could certainly keep up. Her heart was big, her humor infectious, and her spirit was undeniably bright. I will miss her goofiness, giggle, and her talent for pranks, which would make her grandfather proud. She gave her love to everyone around her, unconditionally. The memories she leaves behind with her brothers and family are endless...fishing, camping, birthdays, etc. We had lots of laughs and fun!!
I miss you deeply and will continue to keep you present in our lives by celebrating your life, your laughter, and your giving spirit. A beautiful spirit like yours does not stop shining! You will be missed in body, but not forgotten in spirit Cecelia Rose. Onto your next journey. Love you to the moon and back, Auntie Wendy.

Wendy - July 09, 2020 at 06:32 PM

MA

“ All of my favorite memories begin and end with Cece. I'm so lucky to have so many memories with her and I'll always cherish them. In every memory I have consist of laughter and complete joy! No body in this world could make me laugh the way she did. So loving and full of life no matter how hard things got. She was always there when I needed her. She was adopted into my family and had no problem making herself comfortable and making herself like at home haha. She was amazing. And always will be. Times like these make it hard to breathe. Has you at a loss for words, but to her family I send my deepest thoughts, prayers and my love. I remember she used to pack a suitcase to bring to my house because we never really knew how long we'd end up wanting to stay together. We thought we were so smooth having each other's parents talk on the phone to each other to ask if she could stay just a little bit longer. One of the first times she came over we decided to brand call people with my older sister, cece was the only one who had the courage to speak when someone picked up, she had the funniest things to say and could still keep a straight face. She was always the brightest light in the darkest room. I'll miss making memories with you. But I know you're smiling down on all of us.

Myranda Archer - July 08, 2020 at 08:20 PM

JA

“ I can't just pick one memory, you were my big sis. You were my escape during the summer from swimming to bicycle rides, all the inside jokes and all the giggles in between. you taught me positivity, bravery, you brought me out of my comfort zone and taught me how to be weird❤️ I hope to be half the amazing woman you were, I know you'll always be with me. To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die.

Jalissa - July 08, 2020 at 04:18 PM

AR

“ Your where a amazing lil sister I love you so much and it ment the world to me to hear you are proud of me sis i promise to keep making you proud allways I love you and miss you

Amanda Rodriguez - July 08, 2020 at 12:54 PM