Charles "Chuck" Gallaher

February 12, 1950 - December 17, 2019

Wenatchee; Washington

Charles "Chuck" Gallaher, 69, went to be with our Lord and Savior December 17, 2019 surrounded by family and friends. Chuck was born February 12, 1950 in Wenatchee, WA to Chuck and Carmen Gallaher. He was a lifelong resident of the Wenatchee area. Chuck attended Eastmont schools graduating in 1968 from Eastmont High School. During his high school years, Chuck played baseball pitching a perfect game his senior year. He loved music and played the french horn and trumpet for the high school band and sang in the choir and Swing Choir. Chuck is best remembered as the EHS Drum Major. He married the love of his life, Debbie Stevens, on November 19, 1978. They had two wonderful children, Bob and Allison. Chuck was very proud of his family.

Chuck made his life as a contractor and owner of Columbia Fire and Water Repair. Chuck sold his business and retired in 2000. They spent many years traveling together, going on cruises, camping and enjoying the outdoors. Chuck enjoyed boating, steelhead fishing and golfing in his spare time. One of Chuck's great adventures was the opportunity to attend the U.S. Open at Torrey Pines in 2008, where he saw Tiger Woods win the title in an 18-hole sudden death playoff.

Chuck was a member of Eastmont Baptist Church and had a passion for scripture. He enjoyed Bible study and was always delving deeper into the Word.

Chuck is survived by his loving wife Debbie, his two children: Bob (Michelle) Gallaher and Allison (Heath) Frazier, both of East Wenatchee, WA; brothers Rex (Holly) Gallaher of Palm Desert, CA and Kevin (Nancy) Gallaher of Keizer, OR; five grandchildren, Libby, Reece, Hudson, Jase, and Tayden and many nieces, nephews and cousins and his Uncle Rex. He was preceded in death by his father Chuck Gallaher Sr., mother Carmen Gallaher, father-in-law Wilford Stevens and brother-in-law Rich Stevens.

A Celebration of Chuck's life will be on Saturday, January 4 at 11:00 at Eastmont Baptist Church with Pastor Dallas Stringer officiating. We cannot begin to thank our Eastmont Baptist Church family and Pastoral Staff for their love and support that they have shown to Chuck and the family. They would also like to thank Miranda Fezer and the staff at Confluence Health Oncology department, 3rd floor Wenatchee Valley Hospital doctors and nurses and the hospital ICU staff. In lieu of flowers, you may send donations to Eastmont Baptist Church.
