

Clifford Walter Johnson

June 4, 1911 - March 14, 2009

Clifford Walter Johnson, also known as James Walter Johnson, 97, of Badger Mountain, died Saturday, March 14, 2009, in Wenatchee.

He was a longtime resident of Badger Mountain and was a rancher.

Survivors include his children, Greg Johnson and Robin Burges, both of East Wenatchee, and Randy Johnson of Issaquah.

A celebration of his life will be held at 1 p.m. March 28 at the NCW District Fairgrounds community hall in Waterville. Visitation will be held Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., at Heritage Memorial Chapel in East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

RB

“ I will always remember how good of a friend you were to my dad and my self. Letting us all come and ride your horses any time...We had so much fun dance and listening to your stories of your wild parties,and tepie creaping.I went to see you about six month ago at the rest home. Your ligts were out... Did not know me. I hope you and my dad up have a great time up in heaven talking over old time. One day soon I will join you all and we can laugh,ride horeses and dance forever. your were loved in my heart Clif. Ramona Bailey

Ramona Bailey - March 25, 2009 at 04:59 AM

CH

“ All the wonderful times we shared between our families over the years, birthdays, bar b q's and fair events and how Cliff always kept us rolling one way or another. He will always be in our hearts and will miss him deeply. I agree with what Mark said, I am sure that Cliff & Gibby are looking for that carefree trail ride in God's Country and that perfect fishing spot. Love to you all, Connie & Randy Hunt

Connie (Arndt) & Randy Hunt - March 25, 2009 at 03:47 AM

KS

“ Robin:) It's been years since we worked at Stemilt together! I've thought of you often:) I remember you speaking very fondly of your Dad:) I'm so sorry for your loss. My love to you, Ryan and your entire family:) Kelli Reider Schmidt

Kelli Reider Schmidt - March 24, 2009 at 12:49 PM

MH

“ I will always remember the entertaining times spent with Cliff. He and Gibby are probably picking out a good saddlehorse and getting ready for a carefree trail ride. Happy trails fella's.

Mark R. Harle - March 24, 2009 at 08:02 AM