

Constance Baird

February 29, 1932 - May 22, 2015

Constance "Beverly" Baird, 83, passed away on May 22, 2015 at her home in Cashmere.

She was a "Leap Year Baby," born on February 29, 1932, in Wenatchee, WA to the late Henry M. and Constance (McQuarie) Breigenzer. Raised in Wenatchee along with her two brothers and two sisters she attended school and graduated from Wenatchee High School. On August 3, 1952 she married Roland "Dick" Baird. That November Dick agreed that they could move to California so she could see movie stars, and he worked as a carpenter. After five months the couple moved back to the valley and settled into the home that Dick built for them. She raised their family, daughters, Dicksie-Dael, Locklyn, Holly and son, Loren. While Dick worked the family orchards she kept busy with the flower gardens, sewing for the girls and later in life babysitting her grandchildren and finding treasures at yard sales.

Besides quick trips to Mexico and Canada, Beverly enjoyed their annual trips to Pacific Beach. Many memories were made walking on the beach and collecting shells.

She is preceded in death by her parents; brothers, Lachlen "Lock" Stocker, Loren Stocker; sisters, Enid Erwin, Waverly Weber; daughter, Madonna Joy and grandson, Gannon Garrett.
