

Cornelio Tovar

July 5, 1978 - December 20, 2019

Cornelio "Corn" Tovar

Corn was a loving father of two daughters who meant the world to him. Corn grew up in Leavenworth where he made countless amounts of friends and then moved to Wenatchee, where he mastered his trade as a diesel mechanic for over two decades. He worked for Mobile Fleet most of his career and most recently at Hi-Up Fruit. He made many close friends at both locations, some who also became close family friends. His knowledge and love for fixing things was extremely admirable.

Cornelio is survived by his fiancé, Vanessa Aviles, his parents, Eutimio and Ofelia Tovar, his brothers Roberto Tovar, Jesus Tovar (Rachel Tovar), Juan Tovar (Mackenzie Hughes), and Manuel Guerrero, and sisters, Eva Tovar (Rene Aviles), Ana Tovar-Kopinski (Brett Kopinski), Cristina Gonzalez (Miguel Gonzalez) and Teresa Guerrero. Corn is also survived by his grandparents, Benedicto and Maria Sanchez, and his many uncles, aunts, and cousins.

Corn lived his life doing activities he loved: shed hunting, hunting, fishing, snowmobiling, barbecuing, hiking, camping and being the world's best pinata guy at every party. Corn could rarely be found sitting because he was always too busy entertaining everyone and spending time with his family and friends.

Corn's last year was spent making the happiest of memories with Vanessa. His fun, adventurous and loving spirit will be missed by many.

A Rosary Vigil will be held at 6:00 p.m., on Thursday, December 26, 2019, at Heritage Memorial Chapel, located at 19 Rock Island Road, East Wenatchee, WA, 98802.

“ It's hard to believe a year ago Corn was shed hunting and appeared happy. He was my neighbor and a friend. He and Marisol were the best neighbors and the kids so adorable. I will never understand this tragedy and know Corn is watching over his girls. Miss you Corn!

“ Corn: We will miss your jokes and wood cutting skills at elk camp. Please watch over us and help us live with this new hole in our hearts.

“ So sad to see this. Corn & family were my neighbors and I worked with Corn on our irrigation system. He was always helpful and loved his kids. Prayers for his young daughters who are devastated. Corn we may never understand but hope you have found the peace you were looking for! You will be missed!
