

Craig Trescott Butler

January 23, 1938 - July 6, 2011

Craig T. Butler, 73, of Wenatchee, a former longtime Edgewood, Washington resident, passed away at his home on Wednesday, July 6, 2011, following an extended illness.

He was born on January 23, 1938 in Seattle to the late Robert and Edith (Nordhaus) Butler. He graduated from the Queen Ann High School in 1956 and continued his education at Renton Vocational College. He went to work at a neon sign company in Seattle. On April 21, 1967, he was married to Andrea J. Smails in Seattle, where they made their first home together.

Craig went to work at a equipment rental company prior to becoming a Stationary Engineer for the Continental Baking Company, known as "Wonder Bread". They moved to make their home in Edgewood in 1989, where they remained until moving to Wenatchee in 2009.

He was a member of the Operating Engineers Union of Seattle. He enjoyed his family, the beach, boating, camping, fishing and gardening.

He is survived by his wife, Andrea J. Butler, Wenatchee; one son and daughter-in-law, Darren & Kay Butler, Bonney Lake, WA; one daughter and son-in-law, Kelli & Ted Snodgrass, Cashmere; one brother and sister-in-law, Terry & Linda Butler, Edmonds, WA; one granddaughter, Rilee Snodgrass, Cashmere and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Robin Kildow.

Private Family Services will be held at a later date. Friends who wish may make memorial donations in his name to the Kidney Foundation or the charity of their choice. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.
