

Daisy Esther Feigal

February 23, 1940 - October 28, 2023

Saturday October 28th at 9:03 pm, Daisy Esther Feigal left East Wenatchee, for the arms of her loved ones she missed and longed to see. It was a beautiful fall night with a nearly Full Moon, when Daisy took her last breath and blew out her candle of life. The full moon was always her favorite as she could see to work outside longer. She was given a few days to say her goodbyes to her beloved family, friends, and caregivers.

Daisy was born in a small motel room in Burns Oregon on February 23rd, 1940 to Gladys and Sonny Brown. She enjoyed growing up in Izee, Burns and John Day Oregon with one older Sister Helen and her cousins. At age 3 she was helping her dad with haying by pulling the lever on the horse drawn hay rack. She loved the outdoors and the hard work that came with it.

Her claim to fame was ... Being the first Girl entered in the Harney County Rodeo, where she took the Silver Belt Buckles in 1951 and 1953 in cow cutting. Oh how she loved her horse Flicka for 28 years, then she became the owner of numerous Dogs.

She was widowed when only 18 and cared for her daughter Debra until she remarried Jim Feigal and together they raised Debra, Daniel, Delbert and Della (Amy).

Indoors you would find her always busy with her many hobbies of crocheting, sewing pageant dresses & giant Christmas stockings, painting, and Ceramics, where her creations have blessed many lives. As a student of Bob Ross she has left her family and friends more than 80 paintings to enjoy. She loved collecting and enjoyed Dutch Delft items.

Daisy loved working in the garden, orchard, and her yard and raising all kinds of plants and flowers...but what truly brought her Joy in this life were her 12 Grandchildren; Anderson's Charles (Kati), Erik(Kellie), Brian(Hue), Clayton(Shaylie), Michael(Kortney, Sonny(Franciellen), Feigals; James(Elisa), Matt(Crystal), Kyle, Smiths; Parker, Dorian, and Peyton.

20 great grandchildren; Scarlet, Ginger, Ember, Brennen, & Peter. Starla, Gunner, Mia, and Holly, Leo, Wynn, Henry and Wesson, Troy and Stella, Larissa, Enzo and baby. Thomas and Remi.
