“ One of my favorite memories is when all of us cousins would gather at the park on the east side, across the street from Cousin David's light blue house on the corner. We'd play a game called Rumors and laugh at all the silly things we'd say. I can still picture David with that big smile on his face, always enjoying the moment. Those are memories I'll cherish forever. You will be deeply missed, David. Rest in peace. ❤️
