Debbie Sue Gregg

April 10, 1957 - April 21, 2021

Quincy, Washington

Debbie Gregg, 64, of Quincy passed away on Wednesday, April 21, 2021 at Central Washington Hospital in Wenatchee.

Debbie was born on April 10, 1957 in Wenatchee to Leo and Oleta (Clift) Agens. She grew up her early years in Wenatchee and attended Kindergarten at Columbia School prior to the family moving to East Wenatchee in 1962. She attended Grant School, Sterling Middle, and Eastmont High School - graduating from Eastmont High school in 1975.

Debbie met and later was married to James Bruce Gregg on March 6, 1976 in Monitor, WA. They made their first home together in Wenatchee prior to moving to Rock Island. They moved to Quincy in 1986, where they lived until 2000, when they moved to their current residence in Quincy.

Debbie worked for the Quincy School District as a Para Professional, working with special needs children. She retired in 2018.

Debbie enjoyed coffee, donuts, and spending time with her kids and grandkids. She danced like no one was watching and loved the Apple Blossom Festival and Parades (her favorite ride was the Scrambler). She played the trumpet in 6th grade as part of the high school Apple Blossom Parade.

Debbie is survived by her husband: Bruce; daughters: April Gregg, Lindsey Vickery, Brittany Albrecht, and Lacy Vargas; father: Leo Agens; and sisters: Julie Kuntz, Joan Galbraith, and Kristen DeCoteau; along with her many nieces, nephews, and grandchildren.

A Graveside Service will be held Wednesday, April 28, 2021 at 11:00am at the Wenatchee Cemetery. Friends who wish, may make Memorial Donations in her name to Seattle Children's Hospital.

To view Debbie's full obituary, you are invited to view her Online Tribute at www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com where you can also view photos, make a donation, and share a memory. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.
