“ My beautiful cousin, who was like sister to me. I was thinking about you and came across this heart-breaking news. Haven't seen you in about 28 years, but you your mom & dad, Jack were the closest thing I had to a family growing up.

Love you RIP

“ Where do I begin, Denise was a beautiful soul. From the day I met her she extended her hand and opened her heart. Her smile was warm and welcoming. She always made me laugh. There was never a dull moment when she was around. She could talk you into doing anything lol. We laughed a lot, cried a lot, go without talking for a bit but would always pick up right were we left off. Denise was more than just a friend she was my sister. She was always there for me and my daughter anytime I needed help. Denise would help anyone who needed help she never hesitated. Denise touched many peoples lives wherever she went she left her mark. I know you are in paradise in your own beautiful garden running free, thank you for being so good to me and Amanda and always showing me love. Forever grateful for your blessings. I miss you. Save a place for me. Riparadise my sweet sister in law

“ Our Deepest Condolences on the loss of your Mother. Sending Prayers. 🙏🙏🙏💔

I met your Mom, Denise, over 30 years ago at Ricci and Kathy Ronquillo's Wedding. Denise and Dave, Mike and Joanne, Me and Joe all met up at the reception.

We all had a great time. We became family when Mike and Joanne married. Denise has always been so nice and always so helpful.

She was truly a genuine loving and caring person.

I'll miss you Denise.

May You Rest in Eternal Peace. ✝️🕊️🙏💔

“ My Beautiful Momma, There is no one in this world that could have done it better than you did. It would take more than 9 different women to have accomplished the impact you had in this world. I will always remember the way you and I would sit down and just talk about everything and anything. There was nothing I had to be ashamed of and you allowed for me to be myself always. You showed me the world for what it was and helped me understand what life is about. You lived with an open heart, open arms, and an open house..even if it wasn't your house..(ha ha). There was never a moment I couldn't count on you. You made it possible for me to get through some of the worst moments in my life and helped me to find the strength to make it through days that seemed impossible. I would give anything to have just one more day with you. One more day to hug and kiss you. One more day to listen to your dreams and all the crazy things you did. I love you more than you will ever know. I promise to be better. A better Mom to my babies, a better auntie to your grand babies and a better Brother to my sisters..(ha ha). I will always remember the things you would say like "Treat people the way you want to be treated" or "Don't start anything if you aren't going to finish it" but most of all I can hear you saying "Don't hit anyone first" (ha ha). I love you Mom and I still NEED you! So stay close to me and let me know your still here. You are forever in my heart, always on my mind, and will Never be forgotten. Rest Easy Momma...

“ Mom,
Its only been a couple days since you have been gone, but you took a part of me with you. You were my rock. You always new just what to say in my time of need. Whenever something happened in my life I couldn't wait to call you and tell you all about it. And believe me it was a struggle to get ahold of you cause you never had a phone. LOL!! I'm gonna miss your Psychic phone calls to ask me if every thing was ok when it really wasn't. Me and you were a force to be reckon with. We had a bond that no one could ever understand. I love you mom and you will always be in my heart. I gave you a promise that i will never break. I will look after my sisters and your grandkids for all my life. I will celebrate every Holiday and make sure your grandkids knew how much you loved them. Till we meet again my beautiful momma....Save a place for me in heaven. I love you!!
