

Elmo Edward Fronsman

April 19, 1935 - January 1, 2020

Elmo Edward Fronsman, age 84, died in Cashmere, Wa. on January 1, 2020. Born in Tacoma, Wa. on April 19, 1935 to Edward Neal And Helen Mae Fronsman, he attended school in Puyallup, Wa. Elmo served in the US Navy till 1960. On February 8, 1954 he married Patricia Ann Oaks in Dallsport, Wa.

He lived in Washington and Oregon during his career in the construction field from steel work to framing and commercial construction for the Carpenter's Union. Elmo's passion was riding and working on motorcycles. He also loved fishing, camping, riding and snowmobiles and family. He spent most of his retirement in Gold Beach, Oregon fishing on the Rogue River and Chetco River. Elmo will be remembered for his hard love on the outside, but softness on the inside and his wit and "unique" wording for any situation, along with his willingness to help others.

Elmo is survived by his wife Patricia Ann Fronsman of Wenatchee, Wa; children Debi(Mike) Adams of Clinton, WA; Terry (Marilee) Fronsman of Lake Stevens, Wa; Rebecca (Russ) Flansburg of Wenatchee, Wa; brothers Roland (Sue) Fronsman of Ephrata, Wa; Larry (Laura) Fronsman of Soap Lake, Wa; 9 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; brother James Fronsman and granddaughter Desiree.

Memorial Services are on Friday, January 10, 2020 at 11:00 a.m., at Heritage

Memorial Chapel, 19 Rock Island Road, East Wenatchee, WA 98802.
Everyone is invited.

Please share any pictures or memories you might like to share.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Elmo Edward Fronsman, age 84, died in Cashmere, Wa. on January 1, 2020.

Born in Tacoma, Wa. on April 19, 1935 to Edward Neal And Helen Mae Fronsman, he attended school in Puyallup, Wa. Elmo served in the US Navy till 1960. On February 8, 1954 he married Patricia Ann Oaks in Dallsport, Wa.

He lived in Washington and Oregon during his career in the construction field from steel work to framing and commercial construction for the Carpenter's Union.

Elmo's passion was riding and working on motorcycles. He also loved fishing, camping, riding and snowmobiles and family. He spent most of his retirement in Gold Beach, Oregon fishing on the Rogue River and Chetco River.

Elmo will be remembered for his hard love on the outside, but softness on the inside and his wit and "unique" wording for any situation, along with his willingness to help others.

Elmo is survived by his wife Patricia Ann Fronsman of Wenatchee, Wa; children Debi(Mike) Adams of Clinton, WA; Terry (Marilee) Fronsman of Lake Stevens, Wa; Rebecca (Russ) Flansburg of Wenatchee, Wa; brothers Roland (Sue) Fronsman of Ephrata, Wa; Larry (Laura) Fronsman of Soap Lake, Wa; 9 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. He was proceeded in death by his parents; brother James Fronsman and granddaughter Desiree.

Debi Adams - January 04, 2020 at 04:23 PM