September 19, 1946 - November 11, 2013

Faye E. Hansen, 67, a life-time Washington resident who resided on the Dyer Hill Plateau, passed away on Monday, November 11, 2013, following a two week terminal cancer diagnosis. Faye was born on September 19, 1946 at Tacoma, Washington. They have resided in the Brewster/Bridgeport area for the past twenty years.

Faye became a Cook at the Brewster Senior Center and has been cooking there for the past fourteen years. She loved her job and the people she met through her work and she did her best to provide home cooked meals for all her friends at the center. She volunteered to help with events outside of her work as a cook for the center because it made her feel good to give to others.

Faye is survived by her husband, Darrell Hansen, who resides on Dyer Hill and her three children, Kimberly Smith, Joseph Smith and Kathy Smith. Faye also has three step-daughters, Angie, Dollie and Cassie Hansen along with 12 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren with another one due on Thanksgiving. “ Faye was such a delight to work with. I remember most mornings as I arrived to drive bus I could hear her cooking away in the kitchen listening to Hip Hop, Black Eye Peas etc. Faye & I would just crack up listening to some of the messages left for the bus during the night. One constant caller was so hard to understand that we would have to hit rewind several times to get it all. Faye was the best to work with, a great coworker and a friend!

I know Faye loved and enjoyed her family so much. I hope that you can all be comforted by memories of happier days and knowledge of how proud she was of her family.

Faye was a giving loving soul~ she will not be forgotten...God Bless
