

Gale Darlene Boorman

October 6, 1955 - October 20, 2018

Gale D. Boorman

October 6, 1955 - October 20, 2018

Wenatchee, WA

Gale D. Boorman, 63, died October 20, 2018, at Central Washington Hospital from a sudden illness.

Gale was born October 6, 1955, in Omak, WA, to Leonard and Beulah French. Gale attended school in Omak and East Wenatchee. She graduated from Eastmont High School in 1975. Gale married Carl Boorman in September of 1980. They had two sons, Brandon and Nicolas, and lived in Quincy, WA, on the family farm. Gale later resided in Wenatchee.

Survivors include her two sons and their wives: Brandon and Ashley Boorman, of George, WA, and Nicolas and Stephanie Boorman, of Quincy, WA; her grandchildren: Palmer, Dane, Dominic, Arya; her mother, Beulah French Callon, of Omak, WA; sister, Jane Strampher, of Cashmere, WA; nephew, Ian Strampher, of Cashmere, WA, and niece, Kayla Cramer, of Seattle, WA. She was preceded in death by Her father, Leonard French.

Memorial services will be announced at a later date. Memorial contributions or donations are welcome at Wenatchee Humane Society. To send condolences and view the online obituary, visit www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ So terribly sad to hear of Gails death. We have known Gail since she was a very young teenager but still didn't know her well. She will always be young to us. God Bless the family and give them peace. I know she will be missed!!

---

Chuck and Dianne Burnett - November 03, 2018 at 11:15 PM