“ Hello there, my name is Jordan. I found out about this a while ago. And I truly am sorry for your loss.... Garrett was a great friend of mine when he attended school in Burnsville. He taught me how to play Yu-Gi-Oh! And even gave me cards that I still hold on to today. He was really great and I wish people took him more seriously. I found out about this from my Tech Ed teacher in 9th grade, and I didn't believe him at the time until I read this... I still think about him today, for he is one of the main reasons I do my career of film and entertainment because he brought it to light. I hope you guys can cope and find peace in this lifetime. And will catch him in the next. Garrett was a friend of mine and will be missed. I am truly sorry for your loss...”

“ My deepest condolences to you Rachel and Steve. Im so sorry about his passing. He was so young but god see he was going to be in some bad pain in latter time. So god wanted him home before he goes in pain. He also see you could take his earlier passing now then later. I wish you both the best in life. RIP: FOREVER!!!

“ I remember when he got my children interested in Beyblades. Garrett had quite the collection which he shared with them. They played them relentlessly.

I also remember having the Underland's over for a cookout, probably burgers. The way Garrett said burgers made me laugh. He sounded like he was from New York. During one of our cookouts we had a pretty good water fight. Right Rachel!!! LOL We had some great family fun with the Underland's. We will miss you Garrett.
