

George Riedinger

February 25, 1934 - March 23, 2025

George Riedinger, 91, of Wenatchee, Washington passed away peacefully on March 23, 2025. He was born February 25, 1934 to Moss and Charles Riedinger.

He spent his youth in Seattle and Wenatchee, Washington where he played sports and worked on the family apple orchards.

In 1956, George graduated from the University of Washington where he was also a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity. Post college, he served his country in the military as a Lieutenant in the Air Force. Afterwards, he spent most of his career as an Executive for Ethicon, a Johnson and Johnson company, in San Angelo, Texas and Sommerville, New Jersey. Upon retirement, he settled in Park City, Utah and pursued his passions of traveling and outdoor life, mostly skiing and golfing with an abundance of friends.

George embraced life with energy, humor and resilience. He was a wonderful father who coached his sons in sports and served as an excellent role model in his dedication to hard work and continuous learning. He will be deeply missed by all that knew him. George was preceded in death by his parents and his three older brothers (Chuck, Jim and Tom). George is survived by his two sons, Eric Riedinger (Kathy) of Columbus, OH and Grant Riedinger of Park City, Utah and 4 grandchildren (Ella, Olivia, Alexandra and Cole) and many other wonderful family and friends.

A Celebration of Life will be held later this Spring in Seattle, Washington.

George graduated from Lincoln High School in Seattle in 1952. His friend and classmate, Lloyd Kinner, shared his obituary with Lincoln's Alumni Association. It will be included in our newspaper, the Totem II, in the spring issue. We offer our heartfelt condolences and wish the family to know that he will be remembered. Lloyd also made a generous donation to the Alumni Association's scholarship fund in memory of George.
