“ Where do I begin? Gunner was that kid that would do anything to make you laugh, even if he got in trouble he didn't care because he made you laugh! Gunner lived a couple blocks away when we were growing up. He would always come over and was that “annoying brother” figure for a lot of years 🤔 He was always a good friend growing up, he'd do anything for you. He was always loyal to his friends. We would house hop from my house to his, played games, ate, and caused a ruckus for our family's! I'm sad to hear what has happened...my love goes out to his family. I'll never forget all the fun adventures memories with Gunner.

“Gunnar's dad Jeffy and my mom were best friends most of childhood, so Gunnar and I were tight since babies. I remember my sister and I used to talk him into playing dress up with us (peep the pic👇), we used to get the giggles so bad that he would rip huge farts, then we'd laugh even harder. We used to play gymnastics in the front yard, and he taught me how to do a somersault 😊 My heart is heavy and hurt hearing this news, but he's struggled for a long time and now and can finally be at peace. No struggle, no stress, sickness or pain. He's just up there hangin with his Dad. Rest easy brudda, much love 🤍🙏🌈
