

Hazel Armenie Hill

December 9, 1920 - July 20, 2012

"Miss me-But let me go"

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, - but not too long and not with a head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared, Miss me - but let me go
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know.
Bury you sorrows in doing good things,
Miss me - but let me go."

“ So sorry to hear of "Grandma Hazel's" passing(the neighborhood kids, including mine, called her Grandma Hazel). When we first moved in to our current home, many many years ago, Hazel came over to our house to bring us a "welcome to the neighborhood" present and brought with her a vase full of flowers from her garden, I will never forget her kindness, she will be missed. Hazel was a great friend and neighbor during the short time she lived next door. I thank God we had the privilege to meet such a great person. Our most sincere condolences to the family. ”
