

Irene Kronholm

August 20, 1916 - September 29, 2008

Irene F. (Brown) Kronholm Wenatchee, WA Irene F. (Brown) Kronholm, a longtime Wenatchee resident, died September 29, 2008, in Veradale, WA. She was born on August 20, 1916, in Rawlins, WY. It was there, in 1934, that she married Harold Kronholm. Irene and Harold lived in Washington beginning in 1945, when they settled in Winthrop with the first four of their eight children. There they remained for five years, before moving to Entiat. They retired to Wenatchee with their last four children in 1964. Always a loving mom with high spirits and never a complaint, Irene will be greatly missed by her family and many friends. She was preceded in death by her husband; and their son, David. She is survived by sons and daughters, Gloria Ramont of San Marcos, CA, Shari Hicks of Veradale, WA, Dayle Kronholm of East Wenatchee, Joyce Blaine of Nashville, TN, Stephen Kronholm of Kendrick, ID, Terry Kronholm of Miwuk Village, CA and April Kronholm Romero of Wenatchee; ten grandchildren; and 18 great-grandchildren. Irene was a member of the Wenatchee Seventh Day Adventist Church, where a Memorial Service, in her honor, will be held Sabbath, October 11, 2008, at 3:00 p.m.
