

Jacalyn "Jacci" Kay Austin

January 29, 1952 - October 28, 2020

Jacalyn Kay Carlson Austin

Jacalyn K Carlson Austin 68, died unexpectedly on October 28, 2020, in Wenatchee, WA. She was born to Carl and Beverly Carlson on January 29, 1952 in Seattle, WA.

She spent her younger years in West Seattle, before her family moved to Grand Coulee, WA, where she attended Grand Coulee High School.

Jacci then moved to the Wenatchee area where she lived the remainder of her life.

Jacci's world revolved around her children and grandchildren, they were truly the light of her life. Her love language was food and she found joy in cooking for friends and family alike often at a moment's notice, and always with a "more the merrier," attitude. Jacci enjoyed gardening and spending time with her many friends that often became family. She was generous, quick witted, and meant so much to so many.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Carl and Beverly Carlson.

She is survived by her sisters Carla (Gary) Steffens, Joan (Rod) Gardner and

Patti (Deets) Ayling, Brothers Lloyd Carlson and Robert (Lisa) Carlson, her children William "Chip" Winegarden and Ryan D Firoved. She is also survived by her grandchildren Ryan Winegarden, Katie Firoved, Ashley Melton, Courtney Bowes, and Rubee Noyes, special friend Todd Billings and many nieces and nephews

“ Jackie was the leader of our childhood group, she was the one with all the ideas, not always good, but always fun. I have so enjoyed reconnecting with her and very sad to have her pass so soon.
