“ To the family of my adopted brother to the Wenatcheepum Tribe .... One Bear .... He helped me with my annual Vietnam Veteran Mother's Day Salmon Feast in 2018 ... That is when I was honored to have meet a special young hunter and fisherman .... I lost contact of him after his last message in July of 2019 and I didn't know until someone posted on his Facebook wall and he told me .... My condolences and prayers for the family friends and his child he said he was expecting .... Sincerely Matthew Yahyowan aka Chief TE-COLE-KUN of the Wenatcheepum Tribe

“ *"The tide recedes,
but leaves behind bright seashells in the sand.
The sun goes down,
but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.
The music stops,
yet echoes on in sweet refrain.
For every joy that passes,
Something beautiful remains".*

My sincerest and deepest condolences to Jacobs family and friends.

“ I remember a rambunctious young man who loved to be part of the activities, conversations and always inquisitive about things of this world. As I think of him at his time of passing I am thinking of a quote that has hung with me for a time. It is called: 'THE MOST DIFFICULT THING' it goes like this- THAT MOST DIFFICULT THING--- TO SEE SOMETHING FROM SOMEONE ELSE'S POINT OF VIEW.TO LET GO OF OURSELVES ENOUGH TO BE ABLE TO CARE, TO LET GO ENOUGH TO BE AWARE, TO LET GO ENOUGH TO SIT STILL AND LISTEN----INTENTLY-TAKING IT ALL..... TO GET INSIDE SOMEONE ELSE'S SKIN, AND FEEL WHAT THEY FEEL, THEIR JOY, THEIR SORROW, AS THOUGH IT WERE OUR OWN----TO KNOW!!!!

Your life has been embedded into all of ours and helps make us who we are. We will continue the good fight with your name in our hearts. May GOD bless your spirit, AMEN.

“ Jacob Lee Lasley. He made my life so much better, the way he always looked at me and smiled, to our morning routine. He always woke me up by kissing my forehead, my cheeks and said "good morning babygirl." He was the light of my life and i will raise our child just the way he wanted. I love jacob so much. He gives the BEST hugs. i will never forget his hugs. He has shown me who i really am. Jacob will always be in my heart no matter what and i thank God that i still have a piece of him.

“ Jacob was always able to bring a smile to everyone's face. Weather or not you were family, friend, or just an acquaintance, he would always be there to listen and to help anyway he could. Jacob was a free spirit and will be missed dearly by all. We love you Jacob.

“ Jacob was the best hugger. When my mom and I were going through a hard time he gave me a bear hug that made things so much better and immediately lifted my spirits. Jacob was empathetic and kindhearted to a fault and for me that is a most admirable and endearing quality.

My second is sitting next to him in Chillis with the family while we took turns cracking jokes, laughing and teasing Paul. Jacob was hilarious and even made the waitress laugh...

My 3rd memory is when he called me and sang a song he wrote and wanted me to hear. I just remember being so astonished with his creativity, talent, and his desire to inspire others.

Jacob was an amazing soul and I am so blessed to have known him and call him family.

May we all carry with us his ability to light up a room with a smile and his caring heart.

With my deepest condolences,
Candace
