“ Momma,I can't express how much I miss you!! I wish you could see my new baby boy Xander.He is so precious mom. So much has happened since you left us,I have never needed your love and support in my life as I have needed it in the last 4 or 5 yrs. Not only did Iblooae my mother when you passed, but I lost my best friend. That was the beginning of the hardest and most painful yrs. I have ever had in my life. I lost everyone close to me,and finally I have good in my life again. I miss you,I miss Jr.,I miss my girls,and I miss Justin. But happiness has found me once again through my new husband Josh,and my new baby boy Sander. I wish so much that you could have met than both. I know one thing though, Xander will know all about you mom,and he will love you as if you were here with us now. You will never be forgoton and I will always keep you in my heart, mind and in so many good memories. I love momma peace be with you and we will someday be together again!!!

“ Dear Jackie,

I remember the day you were born. They handed me this little 5 lb 11 oz 19 in long bundle and said you were mine. I was the happiest person in the world. From that day forward you were always a ray of sunshine. you were the light of Grandma and Grandpa's life. You brought happiness to all who knew you. I am sure grandma and Grandpa and Junior are all very happy to have you back with them. When you left you took a piece of me with you. I will never be the same. I will always love and miss you with every part of my heart. Until I see you again,

Love,

Mom

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of Jackie. Even though we lost touch over the years, she was forever and always will be a part of my life. May you find comfort knowing she is now at peace.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Jackie. My late husband, Kerry, and I were good friends of hers when she lived here in Olympia, and even before that, in Utah. We'd go hunting and on many hikes together, and we watched her kids grow up. God be with you, sweetie -- at last you have found peace.

“ Jackie was a beautiful ray of sunshine & radiated a room every time she entered it. She was a true and faithful friend to all and loved her family with all her heart. She found a place in everyones heart she came in contact with and was loved by so many. She will be deeply missed. She is with the angels now and will watch over us all. Our deepest & heart felt sympathy go out to all her family and friends for the loss of such a beautiful person. We love you Jackie and will miss you so very much.
