

Jacquelyn Fullerton Dalton

June 9, 1931 - October 3, 2013

Jacquelyn F. "Jackie" Dalton, 82, a recent resident of East Wenatchee and former longtime (over forty years) Oak Harbor resident, passed away on Thursday, October 3, 2013 in East Wenatchee.

She was born on June 9, 1931 at Greenfield, MA to the late George A. & Ruth (Brown) Holt. She was raised and educated at Swampscott, MA.

She was active with the service organization and a lifetime member of the Oak Harbor of American Legion Auxiliary. Known as the "Cookie Lady" her baking delights were a treasured gift on the holidays. She loved to needlepoint and knit. Knitted blankets were given to residents in the local nursing home.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Pierre and son, Glen Conklin.

She is survived by her daughters, Donna (Scott) Munz, Rock Island, WA, Terry (Mark) Linthacum, Siberia, Russia; siblings, Marie Copley, Beverly, MA, George Holt Jr. Englewood, OH, Sandi George Rankin, GA, Fred Holt, St Maries, GA, Donna Maulding, Englewood, FL; five grandchildren, Richard Wheeler, Entiat, WA, Scott Wheeler, Anthem, AZ, Daphne Asuncion, Bozeman, MT, Cassandra Rowe, Bozeman, MT and Shawn Conklin, Everett, WA and seven great grand children.

A family gathering is being held.

Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.

Tribute Wall

GH

“ Jackie will definitely be missed by quite a number of friends, family, and I'm sure postal workers at the post office in Oak Harbor where she brightened the Christmas holidays for years with cookies for those working overtime in their busiest time of the year. My mother passed away two days after Jackie. I'm sure they are comparing notes right now! May God bless all of the family and friends with comfort through this sad time as we celebrate Jackie's life!

George Hartman - October 09, 2013 at 02:14 AM