

Janet Lea Miller

September 4, 1945 - December 2, 2015

Janet Lea Miller, 70, formerly of Wenatchee, passed away December 2, 2015 in Kirkland, WA after an extended battle from complications due to a stroke. Janet was a lifelong resident of Wenatchee, and had recently moved to Mill Creek, WA to be closer to grandchildren, and to enjoy retirement and life. She was a very devoted mother, grandmother, and great grandmother who would freely give of her time and talents, and whatever was needed for the benefit of her family.

Janet was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints, and she loved her Savior Jesus Christ. She loved following His example by serving others. Most importantly she did not need to be in the limelight or have recognition, but she loved to do the small quiet acts of kindness, that would make others feel very important. She served faithfully in the church in various different callings, including Primary President, Relief Society Teacher, a Temple worker, Missionary, and as an Organist.

Janet graduated from Wenatchee High School in 1963, and then continued her studies at Brigham Young University and graduated in 1967.

She is survived by her son Chad (Darby) Miller of Wenatchee, her daughter Nicole (Matt) O'Donnell of Mill Creek, WA; her twin brother Robert (Eileen) Baird of Poway, CA; grandchildren Camron Miller, Kyle Miller, Connor (Amairani) O'Donnell, Jeron O'Donnell, Gavin O'Donnell, Marcus O'Donnell, Braden O'Donnell, great granddaughter Aubree O'Donnell; numerous cousins, nephews, and many friends. She was preceded in death by her parents John and Polly Baird.

There will be a viewing on Friday, December 11, 2015 at Heritage Memorial Chapel, 19 Rock Island Road, East Wenatchee from 6-8pm. Graveside service will be held at Evergreen Memorial Park Mausoleum, in East Wenatchee, on Saturday December 12, 2015 at 11:00am. You are invited to view her online guestbook to leave messages of condolence at: www.HeritageMemorialChapel.com . Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee.

“ Janet, you and Susie Larson were long time friends when we lived in Wenatchee and visiting teaching companions for about 30 years to my daughter, Michelle Wells, in Wenatchee after I moved away. You and Susie should have a medal for being the most faithful visiting teachers.

Even after you and Susie moved to the coast you thought of Michelle and called or visited her when you were back in town. You set a good example for me and I've remembered that as I do my visiting teaching.

Farewell until we meet again, Janet.

“ I have so many fond memories that date back to Janet's young adult life when she had the great "honor" to babysit me. Polly and John had us over to spend the night on numerous occasions when our parents and older siblings were gone. I am sure she tolerated me but I loved her. It was a pleasure in our later lives to work with her when I was on the High Council over Primary and she was in the Primary Presidency. Her great spirit will be missed until we are again reunited. May the peace of the gospel give you comfort in this time of sweet sorrow. Love Dennis Webb

“ Janet, we go back such a long way - I remember when we were just little tots going to church on Okanogan St. in the 1940's. I remember your mom holding you and your brother on her lap. I was a couple of years older than you so I got to see that. Life has handed us many changes and challenges.

Something I always remembered about you was when we were teenagers at a YWYM activity down on the river below Rock Island Dam. We were having a "watermelon bust" as they used to call it, and somehow you fell and sprained your ankle. One of the missionaries carried you all the way back up the hill and all of us girls were thinking how "lucky" you were! The irony is amusing.

I always admired your skills and proficiency as an excellent seamstress as well as your ability to play the organ and piano. Those were talents you shared and I appreciated them.

As we got into our "mature years" and spent some time together, I enjoyed your sense of humor. You were fun and funny!

I am happy for you, at this time, getting to be with your family and seeing what eternity is all about. I'm sure you are enjoying this new part of your life. We will miss you here but will see you again.

Love you,

Fran Douglass
