“ I've been a friend of the family, especially Cheree, for a number of years. They were all a wonderful family and I'll always remember Jean's smile and her laugh. You always had to laugh along with her:)
And if you knew her, you had to know she was a meticulous housekeeper!
Sometimes it was quite some time in between visits, but you were always welcomed back with open arms. You knew family was so important to both Jean and Fred.
She'll always be in my heart.

“ The best neighbor and friend. We spent much time gardening together, well, maybe, it was actually visiting across the fence. A former neighbor asked me after we moved next door to Jean and Fred, if he was still our favorite neighbor. I had to tell him no as we now had Jean and Fred who could do anything and helped us with everything. We had a good laugh when I told Jean. She raised a loving family that we are happy know and to call friends. She will be missed but always remembered.
