

Jennifer J. Mahon

February 3, 1954 - October 7, 2024

Jennifer Jane Mahon, a beloved mother, wife, and friend, passed away peacefully at the age of 70. Born in 1954 in Spokane, Washington, Jennifer grew up surrounded by a loving family, with her older sister, Sue, and brother, Steve. During her high school years, the family moved to Bellevue, Washington, where she graduated from Newport High School.

Jennifer embarked on a rewarding career as a flight attendant for Alaska Airlines, where her warmth and compassion left a lasting impression on all who met her. She found her greatest joy in raising her two sons, Tyler and Andrew, nurturing them with love and instilling in them the values of kindness, empathy and beliefs in God.

In retirement, Jennifer embraced her creative side by painting coffee mugs for her local community, sharing her artistic talents and warmth with others. She had a deep love for the water, enjoying boating and water skiing, which brought her immense joy. She also delighted in relaxing with a good glass of wine, savoring life's simple pleasures.

For over 40 years, Jennifer's love for her husband, Steve, was unwavering - together they built a life rich in laughter and cherished memories. She loved spending time outdoors, soaking up the sunshine, seeing her girlfriends and taking long walks with her beloved dog, Chowder.

Jennifer is survived by her husband, Steve; her sons, Tyler and Andrew; her brother, Steve McNutt and family, and many friends and family who will remember her gentle spirit and compassion. She will be deeply missed but forever held in our hearts. Her extended battle with dementia has come to an end. Her eternity in heaven with Jesus has just begun.

A celebration of Jennifer's life will be held at a later date, where family and friends can come together to honor her memory.

“ It was an honor taking care of Jennifer for the last year of her life. She was vibrant and beautiful inside and out. I still think about her often which is how I found this obituary and I just had to write something. Her husband Steve is also just as vibrant and kind as she was, and I could tell they meant a lot to each other. I hope her family is doing good, I wish nothing but the best

Our sweet Jennifer. A kinder person you couldn't find. I was so blessed have her as my sister-in-law for so many years.

We shared family time, golf, painting and great girl time.

She adored her boys and made a wonderful home for her and Steve and the boys.

As her years declined we were blessed to be with her. Her dreadful disease stole her from us so slowly.

We know she resides in a beautiful place now and are grateful for knowing that.

God comfort Steve and the boys in their loss knowing how loved she was by so many. Love, Aunt Marsha and Uncle Dale
