

John Green

January 6, 1955 - November 7, 2025

John Kevin Green died at his East Wenatchee home on November 7, 2025 at the age of 70, after a long struggle with chronic kidney disease, his loving family by his side. He was born on January 6, 1955 in Coulee Dam Washington and was raised there and in Bridgeport, Washington. A gifted athlete from an early age, John played football and baseball and became an outstanding skier and golfer. At the academic top of his class and a champion sprinter at Gonzaga Prep in Spokane, he graduated from Lake Roosevelt High School and earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Washington State University. He spent a dedicated career with the Department of Interior at Lake Roosevelt National Recreation Area, applying skills in such diverse endeavors as fire containment, pest control, landscape management and public engagement. Kind, curious and gregarious, John was an avid fisherman who found peace in the beauty and wonder of the great outdoors and passed this joy on to his children.

Predeceased by his parents James P. and Jean H. Green, his brother James P. Green, Jr. and his sister Nancy E. Green, he is survived by his wife Colleen Morris Green, his step-daughter Kaydi Scott, his son Andrew Green (Lorraine), his daughter Ally Adams (Phillip) his 6 grandchildren: Madelyn, Nicholas, Samantha, Gabriel, Benjamin and Zoe and his two sisters, Shelley Dreyer-Green (Mark) and Carolyn Green Torre (Lou).

John would best be honored by contributions to an organization of your choice that feeds the hungry or preserves nature.
