“ To the family of John McInturff, it is with great sympathy that I am writing to you about John's passing. John knew my father, Bob Brown, through Boeing in the early 1960's. Our family visited he and Mary Jane at their home in the Seattle area and my brother and I got to go out in the kayaks. Such a thrill! Many years later, my father-in-law, Roland Allen worked with John at Boeing. My husband, Dave Allen, and I reconnected with John and Mary Jane when they built the house on Vashon Island and visited them when it was under construction and then again when it was finished. When my husband passed away, John was so gracious to write and send their sympathies. We also spoke on the phone a few times after they moved to E. Wenatchee. So all that said, my connection to the family has been over 60 years in length and I have thought of him often, wondering how things were going and remembering all the memories. I am so sorry he has passed on but grateful it is on to glory! With sincere sympathy, Jan (Brown) Allen
