“ I knew Josh from a local office he visited, am so sorry for your loss. He was always extremely kind and I always looked forward to seeing him. Please accept my condolences - he will be missed!

“ Josh, you are so missed. You were such a busy, curious little boy, and happy with that big smile. You were always on the move, busy taking things apart to see inside, wondering what made things tick, crawling under everything - and why not - exploring was the thing! I remember you and Erin with your zoo of pets, quite amazing and the tricks you played on each other and the closeness that you shared. So lucky to have a loving and close sibling and friend. You married and had a beautiful soul mate and partner and new family. We can't know your demons or understand why this has happened. We can only miss you terribly and hold you in our hearts. Josh, you gave the best hugs, so loving and kind. You are so missed. Love to you and to your family. I hold you in my thoughts and prayers.

Please let me know what I can do to help.

Love, Jill
