“ *Oh, my. I'm so, so sorry for your loss. Kelly has popped into my mind several times in the past few years - as recently as last week. I only wish I had taken the time to reconnect. What a lovely soul and beautiful lady she was. And oh, so fun! My banking years with her as a co-worker and my APMW days with her were always a joy. She was a devoted mom and wife, and hard working, loyal employee but always, always, always a great friend to so many. I'm sorry we lost touch when I got out of the banking industry. Many, many prayers of healing to her beautiful family. Your pain and sadness I'm sure is indescribable. It's all so hard to understand...
God Bless all of you. Glenna*

“ When Kelly was with Central Washington Bank she severed on the committee with Glenna and myself to organize the summer bank picnic it was a pot luck.

Our duties where to make sure there was enough ice, get the trays to put the ice in for the food and organize clean up etc.

But the most important thing was to get the beer!

It was quite a site, 3 young ladies going into a tavern to get the keg. They put the keg in Glenna's truck and we were on our own to get it out of the truck.

So we parked the truck on the lawn on the down hill side and rolled the keg down the hill. Luckily the keg was not tapped till the next day.

Success!!

All in all it was fun!
