Kendal Malyne DeCoteau

March 16, 1994 - April 2, 2023

Wenatchee, Washington

Our Kendal Malyne went home to be with Jesus on April 2, 2023. We are so grateful God loaned her to us for 29 years. God's promises are "Yes and Amen." She's dancing in the arms of Jesus, forever safe with her King.

Kendal was born in Wenatchee to Kristen Agens DeCoteau and Anthony Joseph DeCoteau. Kendal attended Eastmont High School. She later moved to Denver, CO, and worked as a stagehand for Rhino Studio for 7 years. She had the privilege of meeting many famous artists and performers and even got to eat dinner with "The Fray," one of her favorite bands.

When she returned to Wenatchee, she nannied for her sister and brother-in-law for three years. Spending time with her nephew and nieces was her greatest joy. Kendal had an immense artistic gift and created numerous drawings and paintings, and even loved to bake.

Kendal was preceded in death by her grandmother Oleta Agens and aunt Debbie Agens Gregg.

Kendal is survived by her mother Kristen DeCoteau, her father Anthony DeCoteau, siblings Kaitlyn (Kyle) Farmer, Chandler DeCoteau, her favorite nephew Lewis, and favorite nieces Charlotte, Isla, and Olivia, her aunt Julie, aunt Joan (Lance), uncle Bruce, and so many other special cousins, family members, and friends.

A Celebration of Kendal's Life will be held at 1:30 pm Saturday, April 22, 2023, at Sage Hills Church 1601 5th St, Wenatchee, WA.

In lieu of flowers in Kendal's memory, you can make a donation to the Grace House 291 2nd St NE East Wenatchee, WA 98802.

“ Q: How did you meet Kendal?

A: I met Kendal a few years ago. She was dating my stepson. She stood out to me because of her kindness and her artistic abilities. I gave her a backpack purse. The kids were going to go camping. She was easy to talk to and a very pretty girl.

“ Kendal Malyne, my sweet, beautiful cousin ❤️ I'll never forget the day your mom called to say that you were born! She had a baby girl and named her "Candle!" or so my 5 year old brain thought 🤪 If only you could have felt that light shine like we all did! You will leave a void that no one can fill 💜 I know you can feel all our love now and that you are at peace 💜 It breaks my heart that you are no longer with us, but I take so much comfort in knowing- You are free now ☐🕊️ Love you, Ken ☐☐☐☐

“ Oh Kendal Malyne! If only you had felt the love we all had for you, maybe we could have helped you fight. But, addiction is a battle not easily won. You are now free and at peace and away from all the worldly temptations. You go spread your wings and fly my beautiful niece! You will forever be in our hearts and our memories❤️. Until we meet again my angel 🙏. Love you, Aunt Joan❤️❤️
