“ I loved kim we had so many memories as kids. I talked to her a few years ago and she expressed her love for her boys ,animals and fishing. I am deeply sorry for her family and the people close to her.kim introduced me and my husband 41 years ago and I am so thankful for her for that. I will be eating tomatoe soup and grilled cheese and cheersing are friendship . I love you and will see you again!!!

Kim I remember being pregnant the same time you were and having our two boys on the same day. You were taken way too early!! I only wish your dad & family would have had some type of service for you. That's ok your with the angels now & all your family that has passed before & after you. Rest in peace Kim
