

Kristi Ann Callesen

March 2, 1969 - August 2, 2012

Kristi Ann Callesen, 43, and a 10 year resident of Waterville, passed away early Friday morning on, August 3, 2012.

She was born on March 2, 1969, in Seattle, WA, the daughter of Ronald and Karen (Burdine) Shroyer.

She was raised in the Des Moines area and attended and graduated from high school there. After graduation she attained her hair technician license and worked in area salons. She enjoyed cake decorating and soon found employment working in the bakery departments of Larry's Market and Albertsons. In May 1996 she married Chris Callesen and together they moved their family from Everett to Chelan and she began working for Jakes Plumbing doing residential installs. In 2001 their family moved to Waterville.

Kristi loved doing back yard car mechanics, and repairs. She enjoyed camping and fishing with her family and helping her boys with their homework. She is survived by her husband, Chris, sons, Jerimah Palmatier, Germany, Chris Callesen Jr., Lake Stevens WA, Michael Callesen, Waterville, WA and Kode Callesan, Waterville.

A Memorial Service will be held a later date. Family and friends are invited to leave messages of condolences to the family on her online guestbook; www.heritagememorialchapel.com. Arrangements are in the care of Heritage Memorial Chapel, East Wenatchee, WA.
