“ My memory of the service the other day will always be a wonderful memory. It was cold, but the sun was shining so bright and the snow on the surrounding mountains almost gave the place a magical feel. I almost want to say that Loi planned it that way. It was good to visit with Donnie and Patty and my cousins, Chad, Ryan, and Adam. My heart misses Loi, but I know that she is right where she is supposed to be, and at one point not too long ago, she told me she could hardly wait. She just wished she could take us all with her to Heaven. May God bless you and keep you, Loi. Rest in Peace

“ I remember my aunt Loi coming to visit us in Everett, WA, when I was probably about 11 years old. Loi was only two years older than me. It was winter and there was some snow on the ground. Loi had showed up wearing the most beautiful outfit I had ever seen.

She had a beautiful flowered parka with "fur" around the hood and some stretch pants with stirrups that complimented the parka. I think, too, that she had some really cool boots that came up above her ankles and wearing it with the stirrup stretch pants was just "over-the-top" to me.

I told her we had to walk around the block so everyone could see her beautiful outfit...so we did. Then she knew how much I loved that outfit...she let me put it on and wear it around the block too. I actually pranced around the block because it was so cool to have my aunt offer her most awesome outfit for me to wear. In fact, she let my younger sister, Bobbi, wear it too. How cool is that?! Thank you, Loi, for making us feel so special. I will never ever forget that moment. Love you!

“ Rowena, Amon, Delores and Don, so very sorry to hear of the loss of your beloved Sister Loi. Like so many of our Cousins I had lost touch with her in the past several years. Did have a chance to visit with her for a while at Moms funeral sevices. Loi was a beautiful person and we will have a wonderful reunion with her and the rest of our family who will be waiting at heavens gate one day. I pray that God will comfort and grant each of you strength . Faye & Dayle Kronholm
