

Linda Lee Lamphere

September 2, 1948 - October 18, 2016

Linda Lee Lamphere, 68, of Moses Lake, passed away on Tuesday, October 18, 2016 at Central Wahsington Hospital in Wenatchee.

She was born on September 2, 1948 in Seattle, Washington to the late Robert Charles and Vivian Pauline (Jullian) Coleman. She was raised in Seattle and received her education in the South Park area. Following high school, she was married to Jessie and they made their home together in Seattle. She remained in Seattle until moving to San Diego, California in 1977. She later married Leonard Dolan in San Diego and they remained there for ten years. She returned to the South Park area of Seattle in the later 1980's. During the early 1990's, she met and was married to David Lamphere. She was later preceded in death by David. She met a widower, Stan Wilson and they became Life Partners, moving to Moses Lake together in 2013.

Linda loved the water and especially going fishing in Moses Lake.

She is survived by her Companion, Stan Wilson, Moses Lake; five siblings, Mary Lou Wilson of Oregon, Cheryl Finrow, La Mesa, CA, Patty Simmons, Port Orchard, WA, Kathy Coleman and Patrick McMahon of Alabama; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, David Lamphere and one brother, Bobby Coleman.
